Brooke Jackman FOUNDATION

Dear Friends:

The Brooke Jackman Foundation is proud to announce its sponsorship of the 10th Annual Brooke Jackman Race for Literacy, a 5k Run/Walk, on Sunday, May 17, 2015. The Run will begin at the Brooke Jackman Reading Garden at the Theodore Roosevelt Elementary School in Oyster Bay, at 10:15 am. This year we are again accepting registration for the race online at www.brookejackmanfoundation.org, where you'll also have an opportunity to have your own online fundraising page, to make it that much easier to have people support you in the race! A map of the race route is also available on our website.

This fun family day includes yoga stretches, great company, and delicious refreshments. And again this year—a ¼-mile Fun Run for kids age 8 and under, with prizes for all. We invite your participation! Children's Fun Run activities begin at 9:15 am and will include: face painting, tattoos, yoga, hula hoops, and much more. And remember, the Fun Run starts promptly at 9:45 am.

As many of our friends know, the Brooke Jackman Foundation is a nonprofit organization created in response to the World Trade Center attack on September 11, 2001, that claimed the life of Brooke Jackman, age 23. The Foundation's mission is to honor Brooke's legacy—a deep love of reading and a profound interest in helping children—by helping to create and support programs enhancing the literacy and self esteem of children. Proceeds from the Brooke Jackman Race for Literacy will directly support the Brooke Pack, Project Brooke, and Brooke's Books projects offered to children in diverse city, agency, and school programs.

Please talk with your friends, family, and neighbors . . . sign up as many people as possible to sponsor you for the 10th Annual Brooke Jackman Race for Literacy. And don't forget, you can register online at www.brookejackmanfoundation.org.

We look forward to seeing you on May 17. On your mark, get set . . . go!
